

MEXICO HEALTH SECTOR AND MEDICAL DEVICE OVERVIEW

The Latin American country, the second most populated country in the region, now hosts more than 4.7 thousand modern hospitals, while reaching nearly 34 billion U.S. dollars in revenue.

4.7 THOUSAND

MODERN HOSPITALS

Mexico ranks second in Latin America and the Caribbean for its number of hospitals, following Brazil with 6.7 thousand of these medical institutions.

IN 2021

3.5 THOUSAND

for-profit privately owned hospitals.

1.5 THOUSAND

publicly owned clinics

The leading hospital in Mexico, according to these criteria, is for profit and private.

MOST HOSPITAL BEDS ARE LOCATED ON PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS,

70%

Mexican hospitals are privately owned

36%

of beds used on the area of obstetrics, gynecology, or pediatrics

14%

of beds used for internal medicine patients

900 THOUSAND EMPLOYEES

When it comes to personnel, an estimated 900 thousand people work in hospitals in Mexico. This includes professionals in different areas such as physicians and nurses, dentists, pharmacists, laboratory assistants, audiologists, and any other division of hospital staff.

168,718
Hospital beds

7,774
Operating rooms

MEDICAL DEVICES IN MEXICO

Until 2020, the market of medical devices in Mexico was 5.3 billion dollars, with a steady growth of 1% to 2%

5.3 THOUSAND BILLION

THE TYPES OF EQUIPMENT GROWING IN MEXICO SINCE 2018 ARE:

- Ventilators
- CT Scanners
- Radiology information Systems (RIS)
- Robotic surgery systems.
- Telemedicine grow since the pandemic and adopted RIS and PACS (picture archiving and communication systems)
- Radiology information systems grew the most in Mexico by 60% in 2021.